This is where the saddle sits on a horse.	This gives the horse protection from the weather and insects.	This part of the horse can swivel almost all the way around to listen to sounds beside, behind or in front of it.
This is part of the face above the eyes.	This part of the horse lets the horse breathe and helps to filter dust.	These have whiskers on to help the horse sense things close to its nose.
This is a joint found on the front legs.	This helps the leg to bend so the horse is able to walk and run.	This is the part of the horse that touches the ground.
