

Ladybirds

12.10.26

This week's homework is science and we are continuing our topic of 'Animals including humans'. Can you have a go at creating your own Halloween creature that is living? You can draw it in the box below and give it a name. Talk to your adult about what makes it a living thing.

Name of creature: _____

Butterflies

12.10.26

This week's homework is science and we are continuing our topic of 'Animals including humans'. Can you have a go at creating your own Halloween creature that is living? You can draw it in the box below and give it a name. Talk to your adult about what makes it a living thing.

Name of creature: _____

What does your creature eat? _____

Caterpillars

12.10.26

This week's homework is science and we are continuing our topic of 'Animals including humans'. Can you have a go at creating your own Halloween creature that is living? You can draw it in the box below and give it a name. Talk to your adult about what makes it a living thing.

Name of creature: _____

What does your creature eat? _____

How does your creature move? _____

Where does it live? _____

Dragonflies

12.10.26

This week's homework is science and we are continuing our topic of 'Animals including humans'. Can you have a go at creating your own Halloween creature that is living? You can draw it in the box below and give it a name. Can you then write some sentences about what makes your creature a living thing?

Name of creature: _____
